

ROLE: LAYOUT ARTIST

START: February

Passion Animation Studios is recruiting for layout artists on 101 Dalmatian Street, a new 2D animated 11' comedy series for children (6+) and their families.

The series uses traditional-looking techniques to create a stylish and stylised visual language.

Artists to work in-house.

Key responsibilities:

- Complete all layouts from storyboards maintaining the performance and staging of the boards • Use location designs as reference to draw all layouts for assigned shots
- Ensure that all artwork is stored and backed up on Shotgun.
- Collaborate with the Director, story supervisor and animation director to complete revisions and other changes.

Required skills and experience:

- Strong understanding of 2D animation principles.
- Prior experience in 2D animation for Layout (or background design) an asset.
- Able to communicate creative and technical thoughts and ideas • Great attitude and willingness to learn
- Excellent staging and composition.
- Be able to understand and "Plus" the storyboards in all areas, including character posing and composition.
- Understand and love the rule of thirds and perfect shot design.
- Ensure all layouts are technically correct. Poses hook-up. Character scales are correct etc.
- Understand how to manage re-use and stock poses and backgrounds.

Please send CVs and portfolio links to: jobs@passion-pictures.com

Many Thanks,

Passion Recruitment
PASSION